REDUCTION OF RENT.

POTENTATES AND PROLETARIANS.

Aix, May 15th.

The Times last week mentioned, as an instance of agricultural depression, that a farm in Norfolk, the lease of which recently expired, is re-let on a new lease at a reduction of £1,000 per annum, the old rent having been £1,700, the new one being £700 a year. Here is a reduction of 60 per cent, a fact sufficient in itself to justify the pretensions of the tenants in Ireland, who have uniformly demanded an abatement of 30 per cent and been met in most cases by a point-blank refusal or an offer of 10 per cent. It is true that the Land Court had already made reductions, but they were utterly insufficient. During the present year the Land Court, so far from helping the tenants, has taken tacit orders from the Government and raised the rents in very many cases, on the plea that prices had improved.

In England, happily, the landlords have opened their eyes to the real state of affairs, as is shewn in the present instance by the owner's readiness to give a lease to a new tenant at 8 shillings in the £ of the former rent. Nevertheless these same men in the House of Commons deliberately hand over Ireland to the Crowbar Brigade, the Battering Ram and the Emergency "petroleurs". Last February a village near Kildare was burned down by the police, with petroleum, and it is said that the houses on the Olphert estate in Donegal are to be burned next week. This savagery in a Christian country, in the latter end of the 19th century, shews the spirit and working of the British Government in Ireland. Such scenes would be impossible in England; the nation would revolt against them.

While the troops of the Crown are helping the landlords in their fiendish work, to turn Ireland into a wilderness, the fall of prices is steadily avenging the Irish people. Before long half the landlords in England will be bankrupt. Many of them have thirty or forty farms on their hands, because they held out for impossible rents so long that the land is covered with weeds. Those who have come to their senses in time are now glad to get 8 shillings an acre instead of 20 shillings. Of course they raise a tremendous outcry, and say that England is going fast to ruin, as if farming constituted the key to British prosperity.

It was observed 60 years ago by the eminent financier Lord Liverpool that "when agricultural interests are most prosperous the country is often in dire distress, and that when England is in a thriving way the farmers are discontented". These words of Lord Liverpool have passed into history as pregnant with wisdom, and yet they are what we call "verdades de Pero Grullo." What the farmers want is to see the four-penny loaf cost 8 pence. The landlords have hoped that Lord Salisbury would justify the promises of Lord John Manners and Jim Lowther by putting a small import duty on foreign grain, to be increased in time. But the collapse of Baron de Worms's Sugar-duty is a blow to their hopes. They have now to submit to the inevitable and let their land at a very low rent. Five shillings an acre, except near large towns, will soon be the normal rent. It is about the same as during the reign of George II, which was "the golden age of British agriculture."

Mr. Templeton, so long known and esteemed in Rosario and Buenos Ayres, has just called on me, and begs me to convey his kindest "memorias" to friends out there.

The Emperor clapped his hand to the pommel of his sword and said, "I am strong; I will fire on you if you resist". Whereupon the deputation of miners went to the Reichstag and told the deputies what His Majesty had said. Thus rests the matter at present, the miners refusing to work; there are 100,000 on strike in the Ruhr Valley, and business is so much impeded that Mr. Krupp has had to get coal from England. The right of any number of men to "strike" for higher wages is hardly to be disputed; it is only when the operatives begin to wreck machinery and property that the strong arm of the law should be invoked. Last week a conflict occurred between the troops and the workmen, in which four of the latter were killed and several wounded; occurrences of this kind are deplorable, and may be repeated if the Emperor of Germany lose his "sang froid."

King Humbert leaves Rome to-day for Berlin, by way of Lucerne, to return the German Emperor's visit of last year. He will find Prussia convulsed with the struggle between masters and men, which may remind him of his own troubles at Rome last February, when artillery was drawn up before the Quirinal to protect him from the mob. What lessons will his German cousin give him? Will he recommend him to touch the pommel of his sword whenever a popular deputation waits upon him? This kind of state-craft is dangerous: the "ultimo ratio regum" was all very well in the time of Philip II. or Louis XIV., but kings and emperors are now only tolerated, the will of the people being the supreme law. If King Humbert has any judgment he must know that the game of King Bomba is no longer possible; the king now-a-days who would answer his people with grape-shot would be turned out. There is at present a good number of kings and queens retired from business whom you meet occasionally at watering-places or elsewhere: Queen Isabella, the Duke of Aosta, the Empress Eugenie, Francis II., Otto of Greece, the Duke of Modena, the King of Hanover, the Grand Duke of Tuscany, the Duke of Nassau. Here are nine crowned heads going about Europe who have no ostensible purpose, having lost their kingdoms, armies, navies, revenues, court-chamberlains, gold-sticks in waiting, and all that go to make up a king. To use Curran's phrase, "They are all dismounted cavalry." Some of them, having foreseen the storm, had quietly put in the Bank of England large sums which they had either inherited or extracted from their subjects, and are now in comfortable circumstances.

That Oriental humbug the Shah with his diamond aigrette reached Tiflis yesterday, "en route" for St. Petersburg, where the Czar will shew him signal honors. Nevertheless the King of Kings, as he ludicrously styles himself, is now as subject to the Russian Court as the Khans of Khiva or Bokhara; he is a mere pensioner, holding a sham court, and there is nothing real about him unless his diamonds, if they be so. He promises to visit London next month, which already causes some trouble, as the Queen refuses to pay the £25,000 required for his entertainment and the House of Commons is disposed to question Lord Salisbury's alternative. It is said that the Civil List, which allows the Crown £350,000 a year, supposes the Queen to receive her guests out of the said allowance; moreover, Her Majesty is said to "be worth" over 8 millions sterling, and hence the demand for £25,000 will certainly be resisted. The Shah is really not worth the money.

The King of Denmark arrived yesterday at Vienna, where the Emperor is in dreadful hot-water between the Tramway strikes and the riots against Jews. We only want a visit from the Mikado or the Emperor of China, to fill the list of Kings on tramp. But Buffao Bill is for the hour the great attraction.

PARIS LETTER

THE ARGENTINE SECTION

ITS GREAT SUCCESS AND EFFECT

ADVICE TO ARGENTINES

POLITICS

(From our own correspondent)

Paris, 19 May 1889

In the not unnatural effort of all nations at the congress of Nations now being held at Paris to keep in the first line, the Argentine Republic is to be complimented for remaining at the front. She is represented everywhere. This is very complimentary to her energy and her representatives. Nothing like push in this world, for peoples as for individuals. Mr. Pizzurno, delegate from the National Education department of Argentine, has been received in a special audience by President, Carnot to whom he presented an Album full of photos, brilliantly executed, of notable educational establishments in the Republic. M. Carnot took interest in the collection, as he is an engineer, with a crank besides for architecture. At the united dinner of the American Republics represented at the Exhibition, and given at the Continental Hotel, where the leading French Ministers were present, and the chairman was ex-United States Minister MacLane, one of the most successful reply-speeches was by Mr. Paz, the Argentine Minister.

The Exhibition is daily becoming more complete, but a month must elapse ere it be fully ready. It would be useless disguising the fact, that backwardness has injured the Big Show, and discontented not a few. There is to be another "inauguration" in honor of the completion of the enterprize, on the night of the first of June, when the price of admission will be fr. 5 instead of fr. 3. The Commissioners are drifting on fatal ground, by having "select" nights at high prices. The happiest aspect of the Exhibition is its democratic and un-snobbish character. High prices will not bring the grist to the mill. And this leads up to the question. "Will the Fair pay?" By no means: no French Exhibition has ever done so: the present will have a deficit estimated at over 22 frs. millions, and which will fall on the State, to be included in the extraordinary budget, and in due course, added to the national debt. Virtually, the price of admission is one-half instead of one franc, and must continue so, till the 30 millions of tickets issued by the Credit Foncier be worked off. It is not on the Parisians, but on the foreigners and provincials that the Commissioners must rely for receipts, just as in the case of places of amusement. Parisians, apart from their proverbial hostility to international Fancy Fairs which saddle them with a legacy of all-round enhanced prices, will soon grow tired of the toy—indeed are so already, it may be guessed. Another unfavorable symptom is the multitude of gratuitous admissions. The Paris Press made also a great blunder in writing the Exhibition up as perfect when it was only but a mighty maze, but not without a plan. The 1878 Exhibition had a total of 12½ millions visitors, and represented a dead loss of 33½ million francs.

The Argentine Pavilion's white and blue colours impart quite a vernal, a juvenile, a sap-and-vigor appearance to the structure. It is a temple where every visitor retires an adorer, forcibly struck with the sample riches of the Republic. The Argentines have thrown a trump card in their liberal expenditure to put in a foremost and solid appearance at the Show. They occupy in point of interest the agreeably wonderful position united Australia held at the 1878 Show; but Australia is nowhere at the present Exhibition. If a person desires to view the spectacle of a young nation bursting into life and riches, and an old one endeavouring a resurrection, contrast the two palaces, close neighbours, of Argentina and Mexico.

The Government has just sanctioned a gambling lottery of fifteen million francs, tickets one franc each, to enable thousands of French artisans to be transported from the depths of the provinces to view and take notes of the contents of the Exhibition. This will help to replenish a little the not rapidly filling coffers of the Show. After millions will be expended on the purchase of exhibits, as prizes, the latter will have the further bait of money "gros lots". These lotteries are unhealthy institutions and demoralizing. While the French Government is in the humour of such matters, why not insure the Fair against a the final deficit, by decreeing a good Samaritan lottery of 30 millions, holding out one-sixth of the sum for winning stakes? The project would be floated as a matter of course. After that scheme is placed on the market, bring out Panama Canal Co. Lottery for a like sum, to keep the works from falling into decay.

M. Maurice Block compliments the Message of the Governor of the province of Santa Fe, and which shows that the moral and the material interests of the country are being attended to. But why write the Message in French? M. Clemence Roger warns Argentines not to go ahead too fast. They borrowed from Europe in 1888, some 340 million francs; they should go very prudently to work, to secure not alone cash, but hands and arms, to build railways, canals, and harbors, and to augment revenue in proportion to loans, in order to pay interest. Supposing, M. Roger remarks, Argentine attracted 200,000 emigrants, and that these be employed on public work; supposing again, that each emigrant spent 1,500 francs of his earnings, that is, poured them into general circulation, this increase of industry would bring the State the 18 million francs annually requisite to pay the interest on the loan of 340 million francs.

The catalogue of the Exhibition, in six portly volumes, is appearing by instalments. When these are boiled down to one, they will be very serviceable. To confess the truth, very few people have want of a catalogue at all; it adds to impedimenta. And the best plan to follow at the Exhibition is no plan at all. You are certain to drop on something that will be a profitable surprise. And as the multitude goes only to be amused, the serious excursions will not be many. The restaurants, the bars, the beer saloons, the concerts, the Machinery Hall and its revolving wonders, the pictures and the statuary—these are what attract. If the Exhibition be converted into a school-room, or a series of object-lessons, the thanes will soon fall away.

Italy may well feel intense pride at her out-put at this Exhibition; it was the result of private subscriptions that enabled her to put in an appearance at all, as her government joined the ring of the "Foolish Sovereigns," to Coventryize the republican international, that is the People's-show. In point of tasteful decoration, in soft, quiet, and artistic elegance and delicacy in her exhibits of upholstery, jewellery, and "objets d'art," she need fear no rival. But she may feel prouder still of the splendid specimens of her mechanical industry: her steam-engines, her factory furniture and milling "matériel." This side of Italy's character astounds visitors.

There is no lack of amusements; the French specimen colonies and their native inhabitants, congregated on the Esplanade des Invalides, form a teeming hive of variegated curiosity and pleasure. The international concerts are at every turn. Then there is the Eiffel Tower to partly ascend; at night, the fireworks and the colored fountains. You can dine at one national tavern, take your coffee at another, and quaff a glass of beer at a third.

The Exhibition has killed right off the city theatres and closed-in lyrical establishments. And there is "Buffalo Bill" clearing out pockets with his entertainment; the cow-boys riding the wild horses, and the fighting between the Indians, constitute the "clous" of the spectacle. Later we shall have real Bull Fights; the ripping of horses, and the goring of picadors.

The Parliament has reopened after the recess, and, to tell the truth, the deputies are trying to be on their best behavior. May they keep so till August, since they will persist in holding on, is all that the nation requires. The result the legislators have brought with them, of the opinion of their constituencies is, that universal suffrage will in October make a clean sweep of the Republican Deputies and the Governmental personnel; the voters will send quite a new class of men to legislate and to rule. Hence, it is perfectly useless discussing the intrigues and the shuffling of the cards to prolong the life of what is condemned and doomed to die. The new Chamber will be filled, not with patricians, but with business men. Esto perpetua!

Mails.

London, May 23.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Sir J. Pease moved the second reading of a Bill for abolishing the Coal Duties in London. He said the duty amounted to one shilling and a penny per ton, and was levied on coals coming into an area extending over seven hundred square miles, but was spent within an area of one hundred and twenty square miles only. The abolition of this tax would be a great relief to industry.

Sir R. N. Fowler opposed the Bill, which he maintained was promoted in the interest of colliery owners. If it passed there would be a large increase in the rates of the Metropolis, and in expectation of its passing, the rates had already been increased in some districts as much as tenpence in the pound. It would require a rate of nearly fourpence in the pound to make up the loss caused by the abolition of the dues.

Mr. Baumann moved an Amendment that the Coal Dues be continued for a limited period, until the London County Council had investigated the liabilities it had taken over from its predecessors.

The Home Secretary said the Bill proposed to take away without compensation the suspended rights of the City to levy eightpence per ton on all sea-borne coal, granted by a charter of James I., and which had always been kept alive by Parliament. The Act of 1831 suspended that old right, and substituted the duty of one shilling and a penny per ton, which had been continued ever since, of which the City received fourpence in lieu of the eightpence. But the old charter-right would revive if the Bill passed. The statutary sum of fourpence had been expressly charged with the Holborn-viaduct expenditure, and it was only a matter of fairness that if that statutory fourpence were abolished, the City should not be left burdened with the charge for the Viaduct, and with other obligations undertaken in the expectation that that fourpence would be continued. He could not, therefore, assent to the second reading of the Bill without further inquiry, and he was willing to move for a Committee to inquire into the whole subject.

Mr. Courtney suggested that the Bill should be read a second time, and referred to a Hybrid Committee.

Mr. W. H. Smith agreed to the suggestion of Mr. Courtney, and stated that he could not vote in favour of Mr. Baumann's Amendment.

Sir J. Pease accepted this arrangement, but Mr. Baumann pressed his Amendment to a division, and it was defeated by 264 to 104. The Bill was read a second time.

Berlin was crowded with visitors yesterday in honour of King Humbert's visit. In the morning there was a grand Review of the Guards, and the new military drill was shown for the first time on a large scale.

Mr. Parnell attended a meeting of the Women's Liberal Federation, held last evening at the Grosvenor Gallery, and made a short speech. Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone arrived later, and, after a presentation of a bracelet had been made to his wife, as President of the Federation, Mr. Gladstone made a few remarks, chiefly of a personal nature.

Mr. W. O'Brien, M.P., was yesterday cross-examined before the Special Commission. He repudiated having encouraged a policy of outrage. He drew a distinction between criminality and illegality, and defended boycotting when it was not accompanied by intimidation. He was cross-examined as to a great deal which appeared in United Ireland, and said he desired to conduct that paper on Constitutional lines. As to loyalty, that had two sides—force and affection. He bowed to force; but as affection he had none in 1885.

At Newmarket yesterday, Lord Calthorpe won the Spring Two-year-old Stakes with Hersey, Lord Dunraven the Somerville Stakes with L'Abbé Morin, Mr. H. Milner the Three-year-old Plate with Ste. Agatha, Duke of Portland the Newmarket Stakes with Donovan, Mr. Abington the Selling Plate with Scotch Earl, Chevalier Ginistrelli the Breeders' Plate with Signorina, and Mr. Redfern the Second Welter Handicap Plate with Yard Arm.

The Rev. L. B. Towne, the defendant in the action arising out of the sale of a school at Bruges to the Rev. B. H. Wortham, was yesterday re-called and cross-examined as to what he had said and written reflecting on the Plaintiff. Some other Witnesses were called, and the hearing was again adjourned.

The Marquess of Donegall was yesterday examined before Mr. Registrar Giffard relative to his insolvency. He stated that he had been bankrupt three times previously; that he considered he was entitled to the succession to large estates, and a liberty to raise money upon them; and that he had lost very little money by gambling. The Marquess passed his examination.

Money was quoted at 1 per cent on call yesterday, and the discount rate was weak at 1½ per cent. Prices were harder for Stock Exchange Securities, and the market for Foreign Bonds recovered, as well as that for Home Railways. South African Mines were active, and higher New Consols rose ½, to 99½ ¼. The Bank received £29,000 net in gold, making the week's influx on balance £293,000.

It is stated that Lord Londonderry is indisposed to continue in the office of Lord Lieutenant for another year, and that it is now probable that the duties of the office will be discharged by the Lords of Justice until the question of Irish Local Government is dealt with by legislation. The Duke of Westminster is believed to be amongst the noblemen to whom the offer of the post has been made.

The Earl of Dunraven has postponed indefinitely his Motion with regard to the Irish Land Lieutenancy.

Mr. Summers intends on Monday to ask whether, having regard to the death of the Master of St. Katharine's Hospital, the Government will take steps to carry out the recommendations of the Royal Commission of 1871, so as to secure that the revenues at the disposal of the Hospital shall be made available for purposes of public usefulness.

Mr. Provand has given notice to call attention to the financial position of the London and other Hospitals, and to move a resolution on the subject.

One or two members of the Government, and most of the Metropolitan Conservative members present in the House, voted yesterday for Mr. Baumann's Amendment to the Second Reading of the Coal Dues Abolition Bill.

At the meeting of the Scotch Liberal members, it was agreed not to divide against the Second Reading of the Local Government Bills. The meeting decided that the Government should be strongly pressed to send both Bills to a Special Standing Committee consisting of Scotch members, but that if the Government refuse to accede to this the Scotch Liberals should oppose the reference of either of the Bills to a Standing Committee which consisted partly of English members. A Committee was also appointed to draw up Amendments.

THE PRICE OF SUGAR.

Paris, Wednesday night.

There has been a great rise in the price of sugar in France. Loaf sugar, which is universally consumed, stood last year at one hundred and four francs fifty centimes the seventy kilogrammes. It now stands at one hundred and twenty-five francs. The popular belief is that this rise is due to a corner in sugar, and M. Laur, the well-known Boulangist Deputy, has given notice of an interpellation calling upon the Government to prosecute the speculators whom he supposes to have combined to bring it about. The interpellation, as at present arranged, will come on for discussion on Friday.

The République Francaise, in an elaborate article, explains that the advance in price is due, not to any speculative combination, but to the fact that there have been short crops in Cuba and Java, the deficiency thus created being three hundred and fifty thousands tons out of a total of five millions of tons, which is required for the world's consumption. The République further takes the trouble to explain that the rise in sugar is not in any way due to the Exhibition. It also gives the public the comforting assurance that if sugar is dear in Paris it is much dearer at Antwerp, Hamburg, Magdeburg, and New York. It recommends M. Laur to drop his interpellation, but the advice is hardly likely to be taken by that fierce Boulangist.

Railway Items.

NEWS FROM LA PLATA.—SITTING OF THE P. R. BOARD.—TRAFFIC OF THE CENTRAL ARGENTINE.

Our exchanges from La Plata yesterday, contrary to rule, contained nothing of importance in the railway news line. The only item we could find was the meeting of that highly respectable body, the Provincial Railway Board. Mr. Tapia presided. Proceedings opened with the election of Engineer Mitre to the Vice-Presidency, and then the honorable gentlemen approved everything that had been done by the Board in its acephalous or headless condition. Mr. Tapia called attention to the fact that the financial state of the railway is anything but satisfactory. The meeting then broke up. Short and sweet, as usual.

Next month Guanaco station, on the Trenquelauquen extension, will be opened to traffic. The extension is going ahead splendidly, and when completed, it is to be hoped that it will not be allowed, like the main line, to go to ruin for want of a proper body of gangers.

An extraordinary interest is now taken in the Southern end of the province of Buenos Aires, formerly known as the 5th section. Already two prominent concessionaires have applied to the provincial Government for right to construct railways from Bahia Blanca to Patagones. One of these concessions is a coast line to touch at Bahia Falsa, Bahia Brightman, Bahia Union, Bahia San Blas and Patagones. It appears now that two more Richmonds are in the field and hopeful of carrying the day. The two new applications for Bahia Blanca and Patagones lines will come up in La Plata next week. One of these concessions is backed by local capitalists: the other is supported by London capitalists. The more the merrier.

The inhabitants of Patagones have taken fright at the news that the railway from San Blas, through the Rio Negro valley to the Andes, will not touch at Patagones. The good inhabitants foresee the decline and ultimate disappearance of Patagones in the near future, but they may be reassured by the certainty that a direct line of railways will connect their town with Bahia Blanca. Patagones will lose nothing by the rising fortunes of San Blas port; on the contrary, the facilities offered by the latter harbor will give a fresh impulse to production and trade in the valley and give more importance than ever to Patagones.

With regard to the prospects of earnings of a railroad in the far South of this province, it will interest all to hear that, there is at present such an enormous stock of cattle in the valley of the Rio Colorado alone that cows are travelling southwards by thousands. It is calculated that from the old Alsina Pass to the mouth of the Colorado there are over two hundred thousand cows. Owing to overstocking, these animals are now spreading along the sea coast to the more southern lands. At the well-known Tres Bonetes estancia there are thousands of stray cattle. Numerous new estancias have sprung up recently, and all the lands between San Blas Bay and the Colorado are now well stocked with sheep and cows. These sheep, strange to say, do even better than cows, owing to the favoring rains. Any railroad running through these districts is bound to give excellent returns.

Congress will vote this session sufficient funds to build two fine iron bridges across the Rio Colorado, also across the Rio Negro, nearly in front of the town of Patagones. The construction of the bridges is in good hands, and both will meet a long-felt want in those southern latitudes. The trade between Viedma and Patagones is now so important that the wonder is a bridge was not built years ago. All the estimates and plans have been carefully drawn up, and are before Congress. We hope that the Senators and Deputies will vote the funds immediately. One of the bridges is in connection with a railway line, perhaps both.

Since writing the above we are glad to announce that the Committee of the Senate reported favourably yesterday on the bills for the construction of both bridges.

There was an absolute dearth of news yesterday at the National Railway Board. Not even an inspector's report was received, and we heard nothing of Mr. Cortinez's report, which must be ready or very nearly so, by this time.

The Railway Times says: An electric railway, which Mr. Monteith, of Carstairs, has had constructed from Carstairs Junction to his residence, a distance of about a mile and a quarter, has just been made, and proved to be an unqualified success. Although ten horse-power was available, only four horse-power was used, and with this a speed equal to 35 miles an hour was easily attained. The motive power is generated by a powerful turbine wheel at Cleghorn Falls, and carried across the country to Carstairs House by wires, a distance of three miles.

We clip the following from the recent report of the Central Argentine Railway:—

The Grand Central South American Railway Company has applied for approval of its statutes.

Inspector General Schneidewind has informed the Public Works Department that the General Map of the Railways of the Republic is now finished, and he asks that orders may be given to lithograph it.

Engineer Venecia has informed the Board of Public Works that Messrs. Gonzalez & Co. have suspended rail-laying on the branch from Dean Funes to Chilecito, to the great prejudice of the other branch lines in course of construction. The contractors in question lay the blame on the Central Argentine and Central North lines, for not forwarding the rails which they (the contractors) have in stock in Rosario. Engineer Venecia says that if the rails are not forwarded at once, Gonzalez & Co. cannot possibly finish the branch within contract time.

Materials for the extension of the Central North line, to the value of £9,700 Stg. have been landed in Rosario.

The Railway Inspection Board has advised that the plans etc. of Messrs. Meiggs & Co. for the line from Neuve de Julio to San Rafael be approved.

The Public Works Board has asked Government for $10,000 for plans, studies etc. for extension of National Railways.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The sensation of the day yesterday was the assassination of General Lopez Jordan. It was mid-day precisely when he was killed. He had just arrived in front of the milliner's shop No. 572 Calle Esmeralda, when a tall, handsome young fellow, somewhat shabbily dressed, ran up to him and shot him behind the head. The General fell, in a heap and for fully five minutes no one dared to approach the lifeless body. In the meantime the assassin walked rapidly away, followed by some boys who shouted and vociferated until the whole neighbourhood was alarmed. Casas, such is the name of the assassin, was overtaken near Calle Cordoba, and was dragged to where his victim lay. The crowd shouted at him, but he was quite calm and said that he had killed the murderer of his father and of many other sons of Entre Rios. Several army officers were on the scene almost immediately on the perpetration of the crime, and it is surprising that, in spite of frequent alarm whistles, fully five minutes elapsed before any policeman appeared. The corpse was carried to the Botica at the corner of Tucuman and Esmeralda, and the General's daughters and other members of the family were summoned. The corpse, enveloped in a sheet, was carried away on a door. There was a crowd the whole day in the street in front of the "modista" shop, gazing at the bullet-hole in the wall and the numerous blood-stains. Casas is the son of an officer whose throat was cut and whose head was slung up to a tree.

Two holidays, to-day and to-morrow. No Standard till Wednesday morning. This is a great country for holidays.

The Reina Christina takes an enormous number of first-class passengers to Europe to-morrow. The list, which is quite too long for publication in our columns, is almost exclusively comprised of prominent families of this city. The ex-Vice President of the Republic, Don Francisco Madero, is amongst the passengers. As we said yesterday, the Reina Christina is the most superbly fitted ship ever seen in these waters.

Rosita de la Plata, the famed equestrienne of Frank Brown's circus, was married yesterday to Signor Podesta, a member of the orchestra of the same troupe.

We are asked to remind the members of the Young Men's Association of the American Church that, in consequence of to-morrow being a Feast Day, the meeting of the society will be held this week on Tuesday evening, when Mr. McGowan will read a paper on "John Bright."

The Revd. W. B. Strong, of the Scotch Church, requests us to say that he will feel much indebted to anyone who may favour him with information in reference to Mr. George S. Browne, who last wrote to his family in Scotland five years ago, since when they have not heard from or of him: he was at that time employed on Dr. Emilio Mora's estancia, in Chivilcoy partido.

The City Fathers had a rather breezy sitting on Friday, the debate, of course, being about the financial scandals that have recently come to light. The discussion was just beginning to promise well for an explosion when Lord Mayor Seeber rushed in, and, with Punch in his mind, no doubt, blandly proposed a postponement, lest anybody might say things that had better be left unsaid. There was a lot more talk, but nothing came of it: and the news yesterday morning was that things are to be made pleasant all round. After the sitting the following honourable Town Councillors sent in their resignation to the Minister of the Interior:—Manuel N. Diaz, Pedro B. Castañeda, Juan Manuel Martinez, Enrique A. de Toledo, Ernesto Quesada, Eduardo Astoul, José M. de Nevares, Florencio Madero, Luis R. Silveyra.

The Santa Fe Colonies have started on another year, and the sowing and preparations for sowing wheat and linseed are on a larger scale than ever known before. Yesterday's advices report the farmers as all in better spirits than they have been for many a long month.

Crowds of idlers lounged about the scene of Friday's hat explosion yesterday, but were kept moving by the police. It is said that 20,000 nats. worth of hats, plate glass, white chokers and walking sticks were destroyed. The catastrophe was due to a stupid gas-fitter who was "arranging" the meter, not to one of the shopmen, as at first supposed. The explosion has slightly damaged a lot of hats, which the Company will probably now sell at "an alarming sacrifice." Talking of hats, we see in the Pall Mall Gazette, in a picture of all the noblemen and gentlemen who were arrested last month in London for gambling, that Earl Dudley wears a cross between the Beau-Brummel and Honble-Tom-Shuffleton hat; so we suppose this will soon be the correct shape of head-gear on the Bolsa, in Calle Florida and at Palermo. It makes men of short and medium stature look as if they had won a castle on the Rhine in a lottery and clapped it on their head.

The first of the Cinderella Subscription Dances will come off to-morrow night in the Operai Italiani rooms, with or without the permission of the weather. The first quadrille will begin at 8½ sharp, and as the hands of the clock point to half past midnight, the gas will be turned off, and the last couple out, be they married or single, engaged or disengaged, will have to pay a fine for charity. These dances are a decided improvement on the ball proper, kept up till that elastic point of time known as 'all hours," when even the youngest and prettiest of girls look to disadvantage, if Aurora happens to get a peep at them before they reach home.

An American subscriber kindly sent us the following bit of Philadelphia wit yesterday. It is really not bad for the City of Broadbrims. "The Philadelphia Record thinks that it will take a long time for the London Times to save at the bung-hole what it has wasted at this Pigott." This is the reverse of saving at the spig

Ocasion como pocas o ninguna, para los agricultores que quieran comprar tierra que no tiene precio, por su producto extraordinario.

Los cereales se producen en el Salto como en ninguna parte, pero ademas de esto, estos terrenos tienen una especialidad que los hacen superiores á todos los demas de la provincia.

La semilla de alfalfa que se cosecha en el Salto es de calidad extra y es solicitada en el mercado a precios un 30 o|o mayor que la que se produce en otras partes.

Principalmente a la cultura de esta semilla forragera, debe esta localidad los adelantos prodigiosos que ha realizado: Merced á sus propias fuerzas sin siquiera vias de comunicacion.

Calculese lo que valdra estas tierras, lo que tengan dos ferro-carriles y un tramway que las cruze

Al Salto! pues los agricultores a comprar tierra superior, barata y con desembolso insignificante.

Approved by decree of the National Government dated 30th March 1889.

Authorized Capital $5,000000, divided into 5 series of 10 000 shares of $100 each

Payments 10 per cent every 3 months, like a Savings Bank.

When the 1st series is subscribed, the 4 remaining series will be offered to the public up to the 5th of June next.

The Society was started by 100 founders amongst them being 55 timber merchants of Buenos Ayres, La Plata, Rosario, San Nicolas and Montevideo, all skilled in the trade.

This is the most important and indispensable Industrial Undertaking of the country, and the one which offers the largest prospect of profit to its shareholders, from the opportunities it possesses of obtaining concessions and purchasing forests of the richest and strongest woods requiring only the hand of the practical and scientific man and the power of capital to create the means of transport and economical manufacture, sales being sure, remunerative and easy in this Republic, as well as in fifty Argentine Europe, in consequence of the natural requirements of Industry and Building. No business man or capitalist should delay subscribing, for his own and his country's sake, freeing us from the enormous annual tax of $12,000,000 now paid by us to foreigners for woods inferior to the Argentine.

ESPECIFICO DE Hayward en Polvo

The cheapest and most effectual Dip in the market.

It costs a fifth of the price of Tobacco Dips.

It is the easiest of application, cold water only required.

It is the only Dip that is so durable in the wool as to keep the sheep clean and free from contagion from dipping to shearing, thus saving a great deal of valuable time and labour to the Estanciero during the winter months.

It is fast becoming the favorite Dip throughout the world, as it never fails in the worst cases of Scab.

See Testimonials from Flockowners in the Argentine Republic.

Business was brisk all round, and there was a revival of interest in National Bank Shares, which changed hands freely both for end of month and end of July, though at declining rates; the quotation for end of month opened at 263, fell away to 261.50, and then reacting to 262.50, closed at that rate. Another spurt took possession of the Pobladora Shares and hoisted them to 215 for end of month and 220 end of July. The Pobladores Scrip was quiet, and Credito Real and Constructors maintained their quotations, but the demand shewed a falling off, and it seems that most of these stocks are overbought. Bolsa Bank Shares rallied to 61.50 cash and end of month, and Previsora improved to 177.50 for end of month. In Catalinas Moles nothing was done, and only one operation was effected in La Plata Moles at 164 for end of month. Provincial Cedulas weak.

A telegram was received from the Bolsa correspondent in London to-day announcing the following quotations of Argentine Cedulas on the Stock Exchange :—

National A	55½
Do. B	52½
Provincial I	53
Do. J	52½

By mistake in our issue to-day a house property in Calle Paraguay, between Cerrito and Artes, was reported sold for 165,000 dollars. It should have been at the rate of 165 dollars the square yard, a very high price indeed.

Business at the second hour was again fairly brisk, and there was a rally in the sovereign stock which surprised the bears, as they thought that they had set the ball well rolling on the downward track; however the cheapness of money and operations of the syndicate have yet to tell their tale, and a rise is looked for, unless the circumstances change materially. The quotation of the shares for end of month and July opened at 262½, ran up to 264 and closed firm at the latter rate. Pobladora were also very firm, improving to 220 for end of month and 224 end July, sellers asking 226 for latter date towards the end. Pobladores scrip was a trifle weaker, as well as the Buenos Ayres Mortgage Bank gold bonds, which closed at 77. Credito Real and Bolsa bank shares were firm and buoyant, and Constructors held their own, but Catalinas were a trifle weak, closing at 160 for end of month.

The premium was in a frisky mood today, fluctuating between 163 and 166 and closing at 165½, so that the tendency shews a decided improvement after the late fierce advance.

Exchange was even firmer to-day than yesterday and more doing, fair amounts being passed. The rate was quoted to-day at 47 3-4d.

A telegram was posted on the board to-day announcing continuance of colonial wool auctions in London. Prices are unchanged, but the demand is brisk and 51,000 bales have been already sold.

Passengers sailing by Tagus on the 25th inst.:—Mr Tudor, Mr P Tudor, Mrs and Miss Tudor, Mrs Boyd and Miss Tudor, Mr. M. Heyworth and A. Pemberton, E Friese, Mr Tenney, A A Wills, H B Bather, Miss Stevenson, W Martin, Miss Rackett, C E Ogilvie, E Percival, R Martinez, Julia Mulready, Mr Taylor, Mr Heyworth, Baron and Baroness Pollnitz, Mr Jorge and Mr T Bolland.

The National Bank sold to-day $52,835 gold at 165, 167 and 166.

Messrs. Strenis & Co. have applied for payment of $55,000 for work done on the Government House.

Mr. Albert Lavigne has asked for a concession to open the Carabelas Canal in conformity with the plans of the former concessionaire. The canal will be 60 feet wide and 16 deep.

At a late hour exchange was freely offered on all sides: on London business was done at 47 3-4d: on Berlin, at 90 days, at 4.04; on Antwerp at from 5 to 5.01, at 90 days, and 4.96½ at three days' sight: on France from 4.99 to 5 frs.

Gold was quoted at the closing hour at 165½ for Tuesday, and for end of month there were sellers at 165.20, with a tendency to fall.

Mr. Ferier has received his exequatur as German Consul in this city and Buenos Ayres Province, with provisional jurisdiction in the National Territories.

A large floating dry dock is now being built by Messrs. Standfield and Clark, at their works, at Grays, near Tilbury, and is intended for Zarate, a port on the Parana. It will be finished in the course of the year, and when re-erected at Zarate will be the most powerful floating dock on the American continent, and, it is expected, the most rapid in the world. It is intended for the accommodation of heavy vessels, such as ironclads of 6,000 tons weight, and is designed so that it may be extended at any time to be able to dock ships of twice that weight.

We see by late London exchanges that the latest computation gives the following as the indebtedness of ten South American States at the end of 1887 :—

	£ stg.
Brazilian Government	97,806,118
Argentine Republic	62,777,745
Mexico	28,810,777
Chili	16,764,939
Uruguay	15,085,077
Costa Rica	2,523,059
Guatemala	2,128,692
Paraguay	1,397,401
Bolivia	1,231,942
Nicaragua	279,206

Total indebtedness, 228,804,956

This does not include Peru, whose indebtedness is at least £50,000,000, so that the South American States have run up a debt of nearly £300,000,000.

The following passengers were booked to leave Southampton in the R.M.S. Tamar on June 6th :—

For Buenos Aires—Mr. Hutton, Mr. H. Sutton and Mr. W. Gee.

For Montevideo—Mr. J. Griffet.

For Rosario—Mr. F. L. Saunders.

Per s.s. Elbe, to leave Southampton on June 20th—

For Buenos Aires—Mr. P. B. Bolt.

The European Mail says :

"The Argentine Southern Land Company (Limited) has been floated, the letters of allotment having been posted on May 9th. Nothing is said about letters of regret."

"The board of directors of the London and River Plate Bank (Limited have declared an interim dividend of 10s. per share, being at the rate of 10 p.c. per annum for the half-year ended March 31, free of income tax, and payable on June 6th."

The New York Tribune asserts authoritatively that the Argentine Minister has notified General Harrison's government that the Argentine Republic has limited the issue of free immigration tickets to 200 per month, in consequence of the difficulty that English speaking people labour under in procuring good remunerative employment. Meanwhile telegrams from Lord Salisbury to the British Legation here announce the departure of several agricultural families per s.s. Maskelyne, Potosi and Don. Three large capitalists in the south have advised the British Immigration Committee of their readiness to form colonies, and one railway contractor calls for 500 hands. The thanks of the Committee are due to Mr. Sam't Johnstone for the splendid oak table desk which adorns Mr. Maxwell's office; also to Mr. John Drysdale for the handsome iron benches to seat the immigrants and others in search of employment. Messrs. Kidd have printed the rules and regulations of the Permanent Aid Committee in neat pamphlet form, but for the benefit of our readers outside town we propose next week delivering the same in fly sheet. It is to be hoped that all our readers will give a helping hand.

In real-estate, we note the following :

House Calle Tucuman 2441, containing 9x58 yards, for 38,000 m/n.

Building site in Boulevard Corrientes, between Salguero and Medrano, containing 8½x49 yards, for 10,120 dcls.; buyer, Mr. J. B. Roland.

House in Calle Belgrano 1548, containing 7x23 yards, for 18,480 dollars, or say 80 dollars the square yard; buyer, Mr. R. Mendez.

Mr. E. Shaw has purchased a lot of ground in Calle Charcas, alongside the Sferisterio at 14 dollars the yard.

Five blocks in Lobos are reported sold at 1600 dollars each, and three leagues in Bahia Blanca at 20 m/n the hectare.

Rivadavia 609-11, 8x60 varas for 61,000 dollars.

Maipu 738-8x46 varas for 71,775 m/n.

Piedad 2466-78, 10x88 varas for 18,000 m/n.

Advices from Mercedes announce that the roads are almost impassable owing to the late rains, which also caused heavy mortality in the herds and flocks, particularly the latter. It is estimated that over 7,000 head of sheep have been lost. However matters are now much improved as the camps are coming round rapidly and animals picking up.

A large sale of chacras was effected yesteaday in La Plata, there being over 500 interested parties in attendance who bid briskly for the best lots. Prices ruled high and the sales totalled 173,000 dollars.

Las Flores advices are a tale of woe owing to the losses in the flocks caused by the inundations, and the severe weather. Some estancieros have lost as much as 50 per cent of their sheep. The camps are in a bad state and further losses are apprehended. The only remedy for this is a canalization scheme, as projected by Serrantes and Co. and until something in this line is done the Southern camps are always subject to the annual ravages of inundation.

Amongst the passengers sailing by the Spanish steamer Reina Maria Cristina we note Don Francisco Madero and family, Dr. José A Ocantos and family, Hector Varela Castex, T Rivoralta and family, Dr Leopoldo del Campo and family, Manuel S Aguirre, Dr Juan M Bosch and family, Dr Sixto Quesada and family, Dr Bonifacio Lastra and family, Carlos Cassels and family, Pascual Costa and family, Dr J B Llanos, Dr B Sommer.
